

Supplier Initiatives

Many of our suppliers adhere to several internationally recognised industry standards and guidelines to ensure ethical and social impacts of their actions are accounted for. Further insight into such initiatives are shown below, please refer to their respective websites for further information.

Ethical Trading Initiative

For workers' rights.
For better business

Ethical Trading Initiative - www.ethicaltrade.org

For more than 20 years, ETI and our members have been a driving force in ethical trade. We influence business to act responsibly and promote decent work. Taking a unique approach to business and human rights, our members are forward-thinking companies, trade unions and NGOs. Together, we tackle the complex challenges of today's global supply chains, improving the lives of workers worldwide.

BSCI - The Business Social Compliance Initiative

- www.amfori.org

The Business Social Compliance Initiative (BSCI) is a leading supply chain management system that supports companies to drive social compliance and improvements within the factories and farms in their global supply chains. BSCI implements the principle international labour standards protecting workers' rights.

Fair Labor Association- www.fairlabor.org

Since 1999, FLA has helped improve the lives of millions of workers around the world. As a collaborative effort of socially responsible companies, colleges and universities, and civil society organizations, FLA creates lasting solutions to abusive labor practices by offering tools and resources to companies, delivering training to factory workers and management, conducting due diligence through independent assessments, and advocating for greater accountability and transparency from companies, manufacturers, factories and others involved in global supply chains.

FWF Fair Wear Foundation - www.fairwear.org

Fair Wear Foundation (FWF) is a non-profit organisation that works with garment brands, factories, trade unions, NGOs and governments to improve working conditions for garment workers in 11 production countries across Asia, Europe and Africa.

Fairtrade - www.fairtrade.org.uk

By requiring companies to pay sustainable prices (which must never fall lower than the market price), Fairtrade addresses the injustices of conventional trade, which traditionally discriminates against the poorest, weakest producers. It enables them to improve their position and have more control over their lives.

The Global Organic Textile Standard (GOTS) -

www.global-standard.org

The aim of the standard is to define world-wide recognized requirements that ensure organic status of textiles, from harvesting of the raw materials, through environmentally and socially responsible manufacturing up to labelling in order to provide a credible assurance to the end consumer. Textile processors and manufacturers are enabled to export their organic fabrics and garments with one certification accepted in all major markets.

ISO 9001: Quality management systems -

www.iso.org

ISO 9001:2015 specifies requirements for a quality management system when an organization needs to demonstrate its ability to consistently provide products and services that meet customer and applicable statutory and regulatory requirements, and aims to enhance customer satisfaction through the effective application of the system, including processes for improvement of the system and the assurance of conformity to customer and applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

OEKO-TEX® - www.oeko-tex.com

The product labels STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® and LEATHER STANDARD by OEKO-TEX® are available for textile and leather products that have been tested for harmful substances and which are thus safe from a human-ecological perspective. With the MADE IN GREEN by OEKO-TEX® label, you can identify textiles which have been tested for harmful substances and also manufactured under sustainable working conditions. The STeP by OEKO-TEX® certification and the DETOX TO ZERO analysis by OEKO-TEX® optimise the manufacturing process for ecological and socially responsible textile and leather production.

PETA - Approved Vegan - www.peta.org.uk

The "PETA - Approved Vegan" logo allows companies that sell apparel, accessories, furniture, or home decor to highlight their vegan offerings, helping consumers find animal-free products at a glance and make purchases that align with their values.

REACH

Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation and Restriction of Chemicals - www.hse.gov.uk/reach

REACH is a European Union regulation concerning the Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation and restriction of Chemicals. REACH has several aims: protection of human health and the environment from the use of chemicals, manufacturers and importers responsible for understanding and managing the risks associated with their use, free movement of substances on the EU market, enhance innovation in and the competitiveness of the EU chemicals industry, and promote the use of alternative methods for the assessment of the hazardous properties of substances.
